Please list the program and courses you intend to take:

Languages: Please give an account of language coursework both before and during college. If you are or will be taking any language courses pertaining to your study abroad, please list them. If your family speaks a foreign language at home or you have other occasion to use a foreign language, please include this in your account.

Extra-curricular activities: Please type, on a separate sheet, your most significant extra-curricular activities, both organised (clubs, sports, musical organisations, etc.) and informal (reading, stamp-collecting, etc.), and then elaborate briefly on any activity of specific importance to you.

Resume: Please submit this as a separate document

Statement of Purpose (no more than 2 pages): Please type on a separate sheet why you would like to participate in NIRMAN's Study Abroad Program. Do you have a special academic or non-academic interest in the program sites? Does the program match long-held or recently acquired interests? What are your motivations and expectations with regard to the program? Our expectation here is that you make the strongest possible case for your taking part in this program. Please do your best to make this statement succinct and persuasive, not long and rambling.

Additional Statement (no more than 1 page): On a separate sheet, please answer one of the following questions:

- 1) What do you expect to gain from the experience of studying abroad?
- 2) Describe an experience, academic or non-academic, that has significantly changed your view of the world, or your part/place in it.
- 3) Imagine that you are in Varanasi, India. Describe what you imagine to be a typical day that you will spend, complete with routine, eye-opening, joyous, and frustrating experiences.

Supplementary Materials:

- 1) Two recommendation letters: submitted via email by the recommender.
- 2) Transcript: We would prefer an e-version of this
